ABSTRACT

Arranged alphabetically by author or title, this annotated bibliography lists approximately 447 selected materials on the Spanish speaking and American Indian. The bibliography's six sections list 153 American Indian books; 180 books in English, Spanish, or both; 37 periodicals; 36 recordings; 38 filmstrips and slides; and 3 study prints and posters. These materials are coded according to lower elementary, upper elementary, junior high school, senior high school, and adult. Published mainly between 1950 and 1974, the materials cover such topics as art, poetry, cultural differences, language, customs, socioeconomic influences, history, folk culture, and literature. All the materials are eligible for purchasing with funds from Title II of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. Addresses for 131 publishers and distributors are also given. (NQ)

INTRODUCTION

As a part of the Title II, ESEA, program, which places emphasis upon selection of the best materials available, this bibliography suggests a selected list of titles for consideration by any Michigan school. Even schools with no students of Spanish-speaking or American Indian heritage will want some materials, in both print and audiovisual format, from this list. Those with many students from one or both cultures should consider a larger selection. All materials are eligible to be purchased, as needed, with Title II, ESEA, funds.

Materials are coded as follows:

E - lower elementary
U - upper elementary
J - junior high school
S - senior high school
A - adult

These are suggested levels only, as a guide to those involved in selecting materials. Students can, and should, use materials on many levels of difficulty and in many formats. Inclusion in this bibliography does not signify general endorsement. Each item must be evaluated separately for its relevance to immediate needs.
